Email	Manuscript Number: SDATA-23-02536C Manuscript Title: The International Climate Psychology Collaboration: Climate change-related data collected from 63 countries Corresponding Author: Dr Doell Dear Dr Doell, Thank you for making your final changes as requested. We are delighted to accept your manuscript entitled "The International Climate Psychology Collaboration: Climate change-related data collected from 63 countries" for publication in Scientific Data. Congratulations and thank you for choosing to publish your work with us. Data Availability All data described in your Data Descriptor needs to be publicly available upon final publication, so please release your dataset(s) if you have not done so already. We will perform a check when the proofs are generated to confirm this and delay publication to contact you if not. No action is required if the dataset(s) are already live. Please ignore this request if you have submitted data via our integrated Figshare system. Our team will release it for you when the proofs are generated.  Licence to Publish The corresponding author will receive an email with a link to choose the grant of rights necessary for publishing your paper. If needed, our Author Services team will be in touch regarding any additional information that may be required. Please note this may take several weeks at busy times. Please note that you will not receive your proofs until the publishing agreement has been received through our system. In order to avoid any delays, please ensure that you have emails from Springer Nature whitelisted in your mail system. We will not be able to move forward until these forms are received. If you have any questions about our publishing options, costs, Open Access requirements, or our legal forms, please contact ASJournals@springernature.com. Article-processing charge If applicable, you will shortly receive a link to our payment application where you can provide your billing information and pay your article-processing charge (APC) via credit card or by requesting an invoice. Please note this may take several days. If you do not receive the link to the payment system, or if you have any questions, please contact us at ORSupport@springernature.com. You will receive proofs for checking shortly after your manuscript has been sent for typesetting. Please check the author list and affiliations to ensure that they are correct. For the main text, only errors that have been introduced during the production process or those that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper may be corrected at this

stage. Please ensure that only one author communicates with us and that only one set of corrections is returned. The corresponding (or nominated) author is responsible on behalf of all co-authors for the accuracy of all content, including spelling of names and current affiliations.

Acceptance of your manuscript is conditional on all authors' agreement with our publication policies (see <http://www.nature.com/sdata/policies/editorial-and-publishing-policies>). In particular, your manuscript must not be published elsewhere and there must be no announcement of this work to any media outlet until the publication date. Advice about media relations is available from Nature Research's press office at press@nature.com; we strongly suggest that you seek our advice should you wish to bring your work to the media's attention. We will inform you by email as soon as your manuscript is scheduled for publication, which will be after we have received your proof corrections.

A form to order reprints of your article is available at <http://www.nature.com/reprints/author-reprints.html>. To obtain the special author reprint rate, orders must be made within a month of the publication date. After that, reprints are charged at the normal (commercial) rate.

We look forward to publishing your paper.

Sincerely,

Dr Alireza Foroozani
